

So there I stood, staring up the gigantic abseiling tower in fright and fear. My heart was beating and I had butterflies in my stomach but I was determined to do it. Soon it was my turn to go up that terrifying tower. I climbed the ladders, my friend Evie below me. As I got closer to the top, the wind wisped through the air like a group of birds flying through the sky. When I got to the top I could feel my heart beating faster and faster. As the lady tightened my harness, my legs felt like jelly and as I went over the edge my feet started slipping...

I felt as if I was going to fall. One of the worst parts was lowering myself down as my hand kept going numb and I kept stopping and dangling in mid-air. As I went down that terrifying abseiling tower, people were cheering me on and encouraging me. When my feet were on solid ground I felt great! But I REALLY enjoyed my abseiling experience.
