Parent Forum - Tuesday 10th December

Attendance:
Cas Bradley (Deputy Head/DSL)
Mrs Hogger (Parent-EYFS/Year 2)
Mrs Mann (EYFS)

Agenda

- Feedback from year groups
- Feedback from Christmas Fair

EYFS

- Communication was an issue however parents can see that Class Dojo has now been set up for both Reception classes
- Reception newsletters are useful
- Weekly round up is nice and you get an insight to the classroom. The list of dates on the newsletter is useful.
- The children enjoyed the visit to the Cathedral
- The EYFS Phonics Sessions were really useful to see how phonics is taught at school and helping the children to say their sounds. It was good that there were two sessions.

KS1

- Very positive feedback from KS1. No current issues.
- Parents that have attended school trips noticed how well behaved the children are
- The KS1 Maths and Chocolate event was

PTFA

- The Christmas Fair was good-there was a variety pf things to do

AOB:

- Parents asked if Class Dojo points could be evenly spread across the school.
- Could we remind parents in the newsletter about sharing children's achievements out of school (C Bradley to add this in the newsletter).
- C Bradley to remind class teachers about feedback on home learning. Parents noted how weekly teacher feedback helped to motivate their children at home.
- C Bradley to discuss with House Captains Lead Teacher on further promotion of the Houses and House Challenges.
- Parents like features in the newsletter that show what is being taught in school/focus for learning such as Voice 21
